

All Wet!

Stories and Songs for a Hot Summer
by award-winning author Mark Binder

Swimming, diving, flooding, boiling... even a drought.

Mark Binder is the author of “The Bed Time Story Book” and “Classic Stories for Boys and Girls.” All of his stories are adjusted based on the age of the audience in the room, and the needs of the parents and staff.

Librarians agree!

“A fabulous and dazzling storyteller.”

-Kathleen England, Cumberland Library

“I’m so thrilled that your presentation was pure storytelling -- no gimmicks, no big props, just your gestures and facemaking, which is so rare in these days of high technology and theatrics. The kids are still talking about your appearance. The parents want you back, and I’m very happy. I don’t think I can come up with enough superlatives to express the terrific way you presented yourself and your program. It really was fabulous.”

- Mary Ellen Siniak, Senior Children’s Librarian, Seekonk Public Library
